Chart of Difference Between One Person Company and Public Company

Basis of Difference	One Person Company	Public Company
Meaning	It refers to the form of a company in which the only single person is the owner/ member of the company.	A Public company is the one that is registered in the share market of the country to issue shares for the public to subscribe to them.
Number of Owner/ Members	It has only 1 owner.	It has a minimum of 7 and no maximum limit on the number of owners/ members.
Share Capital	100% right is held by one person on the share capital and share of profit.	Rights of share capital and profits are distributed among all owners/members are per article of association and the number of shares owned by one person.
Transfer of Share	Not Applicable	Owners/Members are free to transfer their share to the other person in the market.
Share Prospectus	Not Applicable	The prospectus must be issued to invite the public to subscribe to shares of the company.
Number of Directors	It must have at least 1 Directors and it can have a maximum of 15 Numbers of Directors.	It must have at least 3 Directors and it can have a maximum of 15 Numbers of Directors.
Name of Company	The word 'OPC' is used as part of the name of the company.	The word 'Limited' is used as part of the name of the company.
Funds Raising	It has on one owner so it is not possible to raise funds by issuing shared of the company.	Public companies, it is very easy to raise funds by issuing shares to the public in the share market.