

Chart of difference between profession and Employment

Points of differences	Profession	Employment
Meaning	Profession means all those activities which require special knowledge and skills.	Employment means when an individual works regularly for another person and earn money in return
Purpose	The main objective or purpose of the profession is to provide service to the people.	The purpose of employment is to earn profit by satisfying the employer.
Reward	The professional receives fee by rendering services.	The employees receive a salary as a reward in employment.
Examples	For example, doctors are in the profession of medicine and are governed by the Medical Council of India	For example, working in colleges, banks, companies, showrooms, as a clerk, peon, sales executive.
Qualification	Professional qualification and is required in the profession.	In employment, qualification depends on the nature of the job.
Investment	In the profession, limited capital is required.	There is no need for investment to do any job.
Work	Providing service to the people.	Performing the work as assigned by the employer.
Basis of risk	There is little risk in the profession.	There is no risk in employment.
commencement	Profession starts after completion of a degree course with a certificate of practice.	Employment starts with the joining duty.