

The Chart of difference between Business and Employment:

Points of differences	Business	Employment
Meaning	Activities which are performed by the people with the purpose of obtaining profit are called business,	It means when an individual works regularly for another person and earn money in return
Purpose	Earning Profits or gains.	Earning income in the form of salary.
Reward	The Businessmen will get profit from the business as reward	The Employee will get salary or wages as reward.
Examples	Shopkeepers/retailers purchase grocery items from wholesalers and sell to customers.	Working in colleges, banks, companies, showrooms, as a clerk, peon, sales executive
Qualification	No minimum qualification is necessary for starting the business.	Minimum qualification is needed according to the job profile or nature of the.
Investment	business can not run without investment.	There is no need of investment to do any job.
Work	Production of goods and services.	Performing the work as assigned by the employer.
Basis of risk	Risk and uncertainty are involved in the business.	There is no risk in the employment.
Commencement	Business may start with the decision of the entrepreneur.	Employment start with the joining duty.